

I was raised on a beef cattle farm outside of Sunbury, Pennsylvania. After graduating from Shikellamy High School, I earned my Bachelors of Arts degree from Lycoming College with a dual major in Criminal Justice and Psychology. Following an internship at the Lycoming County Prison, I earned my Masters of Science in Education from Bucknell University with a specialization in Secondary School Counseling.

I have served as a High School Counselor at Dallastown Area High School since July of 2006. Before taking on my current role, I worked as a High School Counselor for the York County School of Technology for two years.

Outside of work, I enjoy spending time with my wife and two children. I love to run, hunt, fish, camp, and hike.

Fun fact: I have successfully completed the Maryland Challenge. I, along with one of my best friends, hiked all 41 miles of the Appalachian Trail through Maryland in less than twenty-four hours.

I truly enjoy working with students and helping them to make plans for their lives after high school.
